Wheat and oats are looking fine.—A bad storm struck this section a few days ago, doing much damage to fruit trees and fences.—Several in the neighborhood have lost fine cattle the past week.—Miss Clark, the nurse at Gray Hawk hospital, is away for a six weeks' rest.—Nearly all of the young men of Gray Hawk have left; some going to war and others to Hamilton.—Professor George Miller will begin a ten days' singing school the second Saturday at 2 o'clock at the Baptist Church.—Hurrah for THE CITIZEN! It gives us lots of news.

Bond

Bond, June 8.—We have been having some dry weather and most all are over their corn the first time.—A large crowd enjoyed the play given by sixteen girls. The title was "The Old Maids' Convention." The proceeds will be used by the Red Red Cross Circle for good purposes.—The Red Cross Circle of Bond is growing rapidly and we expect before long to have a membership of over 200.—The War Saving Society is also doing well with W. J. Chestnut as president.—The precinct chairman, Mrs. Tillie York, of the War Savings Committee has written the following lines:

We Will Get the Kaiser

Come young men and join in the fight.
Pull down the wrong, put up the right;
Follow the band; Old Glory, fly.
And we'll sure get the Kaiser by and by.
Keep up good courage; be ye strong.
When Uncle Sam calls, march along.
Do your part well and do not sigh
And we'll sure get the Kaiser by and by.

Children, women, old men and all,
Do you not hear your Country's call?
Save all you can and war stamps buy.
And we'll sure get the Kaiser if we try.
Stand fast for right, the conflict win.
Righteousness shall reign; away with sin!
Then nations shall be stronger and wiser,
When we do our duty and get the Kaiser.
